If you serve individuals with Traumatic Brain Injury or their families, this training is for you.

This interactive, information-packed day will prepare you to reach and serve diverse populations in your area.

- Explore TBI issues relating to race and ethnicity
- Understand regional trends in population growth
- Examine racial/ethnic disparities in treatment
- Identify resources to help develop an action plan

Trainer: Derrick Willis, MPA

Derrick Willis is a Research Associate at the University of Missouri-Kansas City Institute for Human Development. In 2000 Derrick led the Missouri Department of Mental Health's statewide cultural competency movement. Since then he has worked with governmental agencies including the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services, the Bureau of Special Health Care Needs, and Georgetown's National Center for Cultural Competency.

A skilled facilitator, Derrick creates a stimulating environment to explore organizational challenges and strengths and learn practical solutions and strategies.
